BUSINESS
OVERVIEW

Tomorrow's Answers Today™

With headquarters in Amsterdam, AkzoNobel is a Global Fortune 500 company, the largest global paint and coatings company worldwide, and a major producer of specialty chemicals.

Our portfolio boasts world-renowned brands Dulux and Dulux Trade.

Our iconic brands are manufactured and distributed from operations in more than 80 countries and across 5 continents.

Driven by our vision for future-perfect products. We offer practical solutions with minimum environmental impact.

With scale comes responsibility. And as the largest player in the paint and coatings industry, we understand our role in meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet theirs.

To this end, sustainability informs what we do and how we do it.

Product design, raw material selection, manufacturing and the way we interface with people and their communities is considered as we strive to deliver "Tomorrow's Answers Today™".

Proudly ranked within the top three chemicals companies in the world according to the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index, we continually evaluate our environmental and social impact as we deliver future facing products. We strive to deliver "Tomorrow's Answers Today™" by:

Focusing on our customers' future first

Embracing entrepreneurial thinking

Developing the talents of our people

Having the courage and curiosity to question

Acting with integrity and responsibility in our actions

Setting high standards

In so doing, every day, our decorative portfolio of brands and products add to the aesthetics of projects around the world. Adding mood, colour and protection to the commercial and residential buildings in which people work and live.
